

Never miss a date. Missing one is one of the worst things that can happen.

Confirm every date with your lawyer or the court clerk. Do not rely on memory or a single scrap of paper. When a date changes, update this immediately.

Courtroom and judge: _____

[illegible]

The week-before check

For every upcoming date, one week out, run this:

- ☐ Confirmed the date and time with my lawyer or the clerk this week.
- ☐ I know exactly where to go and how long it takes to get there.
- ☐ Transport, time off work, and childcare are arranged.
- ☐ I know what, if anything, I need to bring or file, and what to wear.

If a date changes or you are unsure

- Call your lawyer or the clerk immediately. Guessing is dangerous. Update this tracker the moment anything changes.
- If you have a genuine emergency and cannot make a date, tell your lawyer at once. Do not simply fail to appear.
- Keep every notice the court sends you in one folder.
