

Talking To Your Kids About Your Case

THE ROAD WORKBOOKS SERIES • STRATEGY & COMPLIANCE

Focus: Developmentally appropriate discussion templates, crisis communications, and emotional anchoring.

1. AGE-APPROPRIATE HONESTY

- Avoid scary legal jargon. Frame it as "an adult problem that adults are working to solve."
- Emphasize safety: "You are safe. I am safe. We are a family, and we will get through this together."

2. RESPONDING TO QUESTIONS

- If they ask if you did something wrong: "I made a mistake, and I am taking steps to repair it."
- If they ask about prison/jail: "Sometimes adults have to go to a place to resolve things, but our love does not change."

3. SCHOOL AND SOCIAL CIRCLES

- Prepare them for peers or media: "You do not have to discuss our family business with anyone. You can say: 'I am sorry about what happened, but I am working on it.'"
- Coordinate with teachers/school counselors to monitor emotional changes.
