Property & Asset Inventory

A clear record of what you own, for forfeiture, restitution, or planning.

When a case involves forfeiture, restitution, or simply managing your affairs while you are away, a clear inventory of what you own and owe is worth a great deal. It helps your lawyer, protects your family, and prevents property from being lost track of. Fill this in carefully and keep it somewhere safe with someone you trust.

If forfeiture is part of your case, do not move, sell, or hide assets. That can be a serious separate offense. Show this inventory to your lawyer and follow their guidance.
